Alaska is special

Look up and around and take a deep breath. The mountains are huge. Trees tower over you. Even the whales are enormous. Bigger than anywhere you've been. It feels immense cruising slowly past peak after peak and the tall old-growth just out of port. Those mountains and forests change fast. From spring's awakening and into the fall, it doesn't let up.

Insiders who've been around a while have seen dramatic changes over the years. Their take: there is no better time to see Alaska than now. Some places seem locked in time, while others have undergone nature's renewal. Over thousands of years, these wild lands have evolved from ancient tribes who lived off the land to the arrival of gold rushers, fur traders, loggers, fishermen, and explorers. But nature is resolute. The whale population has exploded to an estimated 2,100 humpbacks. Sea otter numbers jumped from just a few in the 1980s to around 10,300 in Glacier Bay. It's nature's way. Untamed. Unbound.

18 Wilderness Areas, two National Monuments, Glacier Bay National Park in its 3.3 million acres, and neighboring protected areas make Southeast Alaska part of the second largest terrestrial preserve on the planet. Our captains and crew know its waterways and inlets as intimately as they know their ships. See it up close on a hike, kayak, or polar plunge. Whatever your mode of adventure, the enormity of Alaska is all around.

PRE- & POST-CRUISE EXTENSIONS

Enrich your Alaska experience with an UnCruise land tour in Denali National Park and Talkeetna, or one of our other carefully planned hotel packages. We've done the legwork!

See details on pages 50-53.

"I cannot say enough about this once in a lifetime experience. It is clear that everyone at UnCruise has a genuine love and passion for nature and Alaska... The trip deepened my own connection to the natural world."

Come April, Alaska awakens

The early bird... that'd be us. We start the season early. By April and into May, all of your senses kick in as Alaska emerges from its winter slumber. Each week different from the one before. For some, it's their favorite time of year.

You have it all to yourself

It's serene. Just you, your shipmates, a few locals (Sitka deer, moose, seals, sea otter pups), and migrating birds and whales (especially the grays) returning to Alaska. Peaks are covered in snow (it may even snow while you're kayaking near a glacier—it's happened). Crisp temperatures. Budding forests. Waterfalls rush, meltwaters flow, and calving glaciers send bergy bits on their merry way. And when there's cloud failure, there's a balance of daylight and dark hours, making Aurora Borealis sightings possible.

To celebrate Alaska Awakening, our departures in April and into May are chock-full of extras. Notable insiders—like glaciologists, marine ecologists, and authors—join you aboard most departures as guest hosts for the week sharing insights. Other insiders greet you for a few hours or the day shedding light on their areas of expertise. When you sail on our 14-night Alaska's Inside Passage & San Juans Cruise (from Seattle to Juneau), every cabin booked gets an orca adopted in their name. And on early trips going into Glacier Bay, you get extended time in the bay for exploring. In Juneau, UnCruise Captain and Owner Dan Blanchard leads several pre-cruise urban hikes, and each guest is treated to a Mt. Roberts Tram ride. And if you're considering adding a few extra days before or after your cruise, there are all kinds of celebrations (color run, Folk Fest, fleet blessings, heritage days) in many Alaska towns and communities before the flood of visitors arrive. It's a great chance to join in on interesting local festivities.

"Alaska induced the feeling that all will be well with the world and instilled the child-like feeling of wonderment and awe... Untold thanks!"

— Jane SG; Heskett, AU (Alaska, April 2017)

Any time is good

At summer solstice, Southeast Alaska soaks up over 18 hours of daylight. As the days slowly march toward autumn, the change is rapidly apparent. Animals on the move, wildflowers in bloom, and foliage changing color. We stay as late we can.

Snapshot: The times they are a-changin.

Summer into fall

Long days are a signature of Alaska from late-spring into mid-summer. You have extra daylight for more playtime, but with it comes liquid sunshine, and it gets a bit warmer. Daytime temps can reach into the 80s by mid-summer. So things melt, which brings channels riddled with bergy bits, calving glaciers, and better access to higher elevation trails. Wildflowers are in full bloom. Humpbacks are back en masse. There are more crowds of people in port and more boats on the water, but Southeast is big and the most remote reaches are ready for you.

Summer's end is a busy time for wildlife, they feed up before the winter slowdown. Bears mate before their months-long nap. Flocks of birds practice formations and seasonal residents start the journey south. The crowds are gone, but there's still prime access to remote places. Colors are strong. Deciduous trees and shrubs turn gold and red. River and creek flows are at their lowest (making it easier to watch spawning salmon). And when the skies are clear, the returning balance of daylight and dark even brings the possibility of Northern Lights.

“What a wonderful trip! Glaciers - mountains - bears - eagles - whales! Skiff tours - beach walks - rainforest hiking tours! I’m a very happy person. I could come back to Alaska to admire the beauty of this unique wilderness.”

Good Better Best

Ready.

It takes permits—thousands of them—to go the places we go and do the things we do on an UnCruise. That goes for land and water activities. It's a big part of what sets us apart. Going where others don't, and can't. It's a process that starts years in advance.

Snapshot: Boot-sucking mud. Best to pack your Alaskan tennis shoes.

It's a big job

To keep protected areas wild, the National Park Service, U.S. Forest Service, Tribal Councils, and other agencies often regulate how many people and commercial operators can enter an area and what they can do there. The limited permits for Glacier Bay National Park, for example, are divvied among many concessionaires (small ship companies like us, kayak expedition outfitters, even the big cruise ships). Once the Park Service decides how to allocate permits, that plan is set in stone for five years.

So the planning at UnCruise starts early with the product development team hashing out each itinerary. Where do we want to go? What permits are required? When do we have to apply for them? Can we do the activities we want? Can we get from Point A to Point B with time to fully enjoy it all? Getting a jump on the logistics is essential.

The planning doesn't end once itineraries are created. The operations team steps in to source local ingredients for meals, vans for transfers to the ship, and secure dock spaces with port agencies. The guest adventures team connects with local guides and experts, coordinates theme cruises and onboard programming, and sorts out what activities are best in each location. Human resources makes magic happen hiring the hundreds of superstar crew members needed each season. And of course, our knowledgeable sales counselors prep hard to answer any and all questions that come their way.

Onboard team

Your onboard team includes the captain, mates, engineers, chefs, expedition guides, and hotel, galley, and deck staff. All incredibly talented yet unique in the flair they bring on board. Like you, they've found their Un-ness.

Each crew member is hand-picked for their outstanding knowledge, experience, customer service, and safety skills—and also their genuine enthusiasm and welcoming spirit. After selecting a fantastic crew, they undergo annual training in areas such as leadership, CPR, wilderness response, safety, guest services, and “Leave No Trace” practices. In other words, you're in great hands.

It's an involved process. Fast-paced and hard-charging? You bet. Hearing about your unforgettable experiences is such a sweet reward and makes every bit of effort worth it.

Set.

Alaska is known for its extreme conditions. Traveling on the water through temperate rainforest means the chances of getting wet are high. When preparing for all the possibilities, it can feel daunting. But keep it simple with a few essentials and you'll be set in a snap.

Snapshot: Hello, twinkle toes.

Gear up

Calf-high rubber boots are essential for hiking and bushwhacking—and are the ticket to dry feet. You'll likely find puddles to jump in, too. Getting from skiff to shore often requires a wet landing, which means walking through shallow water.

Liquid sunshine or cloud failure, adventures carry on. Let your mantra be “layers, layers, layers.” You can easily add them or peel them off as it warms up. A heavy-duty rain jacket and pants made of waterproof fabric like Gore-Tex™ with waterproof, taped seams ups your comfort level. A wool hat, scarf, and waterproof gloves are handy, but so is a rain hat or pogies (paddling gloves). As for general clothing, cotton is slow to dry from the rain. Opt for synthetic, quick-dry materials, or tried-and-true wool. And remember, the sun can shine bright so sunglasses, sunscreen, and a brimmed hat do well to make it in your bag too.

Alaska has a way of inspiring those who come. Some say the effect is life-changing. Capture the moments and memories by bringing a camera on expeditions and drawing pencils, paint, paper, or a journal for quiet moments back on the ship. You'll be glad you did. Pack the right goods, plus your spirit of adventure, and you're on your way.

Mental Prep

You don't need a PhD in cultural or natural history to have a full experience, but it can be fun to get a head start on exploration. That's why we list recommended reading on our website. After you book your cabin, we'll reach out with travel suggestions, the ever-handy Alaska recommended packing list, and bios and interviews on any accompanying theme hosts. Get to know the people and places of your journey beforehand and jump-start the adventure.

On board, dive into a historic novel to set the mood, or pick up a guidebook on local birds, plants, or animals to reference. Your ship is equipped with regional books and your expedition team can answer any questions along the way. Their breadth and depth of knowledge never ceases to amaze. From marine biologists and ornithologists to experts on the local flora and native culture, each guide is full of facts and ready to share. Sit in on an after-dinner talk or pull them aside with one of your burning questions. If they don't know the answer, they'll find it out.

Go.

Boots on the ground. Paddles and hiking poles at the ready. Camera batteries charged. Water bottles filled. Your guides—highly-trained to keep you safe and confident in the field—are prepped to lead the charge. So get out there. Try something new. There will be welcoming beverages and hearty stories to tell back on board.

Snapshot: The hot tub is waiting. Go ahead.

Hiking

The up-side to varying terrain? You get a range of hikes and difficulty levels. Alaska has trails, though few are established. This often means bushwhacking through brush and climbing over logs. Or a low-key tromp through mud on glacial moraine or along the intertidal zone peering under rocks at low tide. There's nearly always mud and going ashore almost always means a wet landing. From easy strolls to an hours-long thigh-burner, hiking runs the gamut. Of course, hiking poles are at-the-ready should you need them.

Kayaking

It could be one of the best decisions you ever make. Paddling through ebb-and-flow can be a workout or a natural way to reach your destination. It's also a favorite means of exploring. Push off from your ship's EZ Dock launch platform, swim step, or the Sea Dragon. Most paddling is guided, but open paddling is offered. And outings can last one to four hours. Ever see a 90-year-old kayaking for the first time? It's inspiring.

Paddle boarding

If conditions are mellow, the water is smooth, and it's a water-play day—give paddle boarding a go. There's no pressure if you've never tried it. Your guide shows you the ropes and sends you off to test your balance. Laps around the boat, get some friendly competition going with a race, or just slow and steady. Paddle boards are available on all of our boats in Alaska.

Skiff rides

From a quick shuttle to shore to a two-hour exploration, skiff rides get you farther faster. Want an easy-going expedition? Minimal effort is required on a skiff. All you need to do is stay in the boat, with your focus on what's around you. It gets breezy on the water and occasionally choppy, but your captains are pros. Rain or shine, don your PFD, a hat, and bring a dry sack for protecting cameras and such. Other than those key pieces of gear, skiff rides are a piece of cake, and fun, too.

Snorkeling & polar plunges

The challenge is water temperature, which means short outings. Wet suits and snorkel gear are available on board select boats for a small fee. It's amazing what lies beneath the surface. And let's not forget the polar plunge—a giant leap off the tailfin into frigid water. Only for the brave, or double dog darers. As our guides say, almost everyone comes back (no, they all do).

Family<sup>[F]</sup>UnCruise Discoveries

“It is a happy talent to know how to play.” Ralph Waldo Emerson’s wise words are pretty much an UnCruise philosophy. The Family Discoveries program celebrates the curiosity and wonderment of kids of almost every age—from age 8 to 98 (and beyond!). Experience wilderness, wildlife, history, and cultures, and share a journey across generations.

Bring the whole family—and extended family of friends. We make it easy for families to adventure together with options to accommodate triples in higher cabin categories on six of our vessels. Create lifelong memories between kids, parents, grandparents, siblings, aunts, cousins... And while there are no adult-free play zones and no babysitting services on board, everyone learns while having fun. There’s a unique smorgasbord of activities:

- Tide pool “treasure” hunts
- I-spy with breaching whales and leaping dolphins
- Face painting with glacial mud
- Polar plunges and paddle board races

Family Discoveries Savings

Kids ages 8 to 13 save $500 per child

“The trip of a lifetime for three generations! We all had different, exciting, informative experiences; and we all did different excursions and some of the same excursions. What an experience!”

— Susan G; Denver, CO (Alaska, June 2018)

Introspection and surprise connections. Going solo means as much alone time, curling up with a good book, and reflection you crave with the bonus of being surrounded by like-minded explorers. Start solo, come home as comrades.

The logistics are planned but beyond that it's your time, your way. Guides and crew know you by name—and it's not long before you and your shipmates are on a first-name basis. Aware and awake, you're open to discovery and connection. Meeting fellow adventurers over shared experiences, laughter, and AHA! moments.

Making Solo Travel Better:

- Friendly rates (you don't pay double!)
- Safe, comfortable environment
- Open seating in the dining room fosters social mingling
- Buddy system during adventure activities—snorkeling, kayaking, hiking
- Time for beach walks, stargazing, and hikes in small groups
- Freedom to read, write, and find quiet solitude onboard

“Best experience I’ve had on a vacation! The cruise had every element that is important to me: traveling to a stunningly beautiful place; education; activities that combine adventure and the outdoors; a focus on wellness; yoga; delicious food; great service (!!!)”

— Elsie A R; Cooperstown, NY (Alaska, May 2018)

Groups & Charters

Group Travel

Everything's better with your favorite people. Whatever your group dynamic—family, adventure junkies, gals getaway, birders, stargazers, or corporate teams—it's all about camaraderie. Teambuilding amidst Alaska's gasp-worthy glaciers. Kayaking with sea lion pups for kids, parents, and grandparents. Clinking glasses over dinner reuniting with old friends. Nothing brings family, friends, or associates together like adventure!

Group Benefits:

- Fare savings or complimentary berths based on group size
- Special highlight of milestone celebrations or corporate achievements
- Unmatched focus on special dietary requests
- Innovative and collaborative benefits designed for your group
- Keep it intimate or expand your circle—the casual, social nature of each vessel means quick camaraderie with guests outside of your group, when you want it

“For active people, we appreciated the ‘open paddles’ where we could go at our own pace. For our parents and friends, the guided paddles, hikes and skiffs were perfect. For a group of 31, this trip was about as perfect as we could ever hope for.”

— Nicolas B; Steamboat Springs, CO (Alaska, May 2018)

Snapshot: Group dynamics.

Private Charter

Glacier Bay National Park

Glacier Bay National Park

Unmatched. When Captains Cook and Vancouver sailed by in the 1790s, they saw a giant 20-mile-wide glacier where the entrance to the park is today. Over the course of 200 years, this wall of ice has retreated 65 miles splintering into a vast number of glacial tributaries.

Admiralty Island National Monument

Unleashed. Called “Kootznoowoo,” or Fortress of the Bears by Native tribes, Admiralty Island is home to more brown bears than the combined lower 48. It’s one of the three ABC Islands—Admiralty, Baranof, and Chichagof.

Thomas Bay

Unshakeable. Given many names over time, it tragically earned the title “The Bay of Death” when a massive landslide killed 500 people in 1750. Rich in lore, it’s also known as “Devil’s Country,” after supposed sightings of mythical, shape-shifting creatures called Kushtaka.

Tongass National Forest

Unrivaled. At 17 million acres, it’s the largest national forest in the U.S. It’s also the world’s largest temperate rainforest, includes 19 wilderness areas, and covers nearly all of Southeast Alaska. It’s been occupied by Native tribes for over 10,000 years.

Haines

Unrestrained. The Chilkat Tlingit know it as "Dtehshuh," or end of the trail. It was an important trade center between tribes. Not long after European arrival, the Klondike Gold Rush brought with it a hotbed of activity. It still bustles, but as the "Adventure Capital of Alaska."

Tracy Arm-Fords Terror Wilderness Area

Unspoiled. Made up of two narrow fjords, Tracy Arm stretches 25 miles to Twin Sawyer Glaciers and 30-mile-long Endicott Arm ends at Dawes Glacier. Dramatic Fords Terror was named after a young naval officer who rowed his dinghy into a narrow fjord at slack tide. He was stuck for six terrorizing hours. The year, 1889.

Misty Fjords National Monument

Unmasked. About 17,000 years ago it was all ice. Over time, advancing glaciers carved narrow passages. Granite walls and amphitheaters of rock rose 3,000 feet out of the water. Forest clings to the steep walls and, as its name implies, mist often hovers in the fjord, veiling it in dream-like clouds.

Week-long adventures

Each of our 7- and 8-night itineraries explores Alaska a little differently. Depending on the places or wildlife on your bucket list, when you want to go, and your budget, there's an itinerary that's perfect for you.

When it comes to experiencing Alaska, nobody does it better than us. Rainforests, glaciers, fjords, and twisting channels. The wildlife is even varied. Grizzlies on one island, black bears on another, and the white “spirit” bears along the southern Inside Passage. The same goes for eagles and puffins, mountain goats, or salmon. And of course, those humpback whales. Hike, kayak, hot tub under the stars. Play in the mud and take a polar plunge. Liquid sunshine or cloud failure—there’s action. Get ready. Your expedition team has plans for everyone, whatever your level of activity.

Each one explores Alaska a little differently. And fares differ depending on your vessel and itinerary, but there’s an excellent option to fit most any budget.

“UnCruise exceeded my expectations overall! Wildlife, activities, adventure, great food, awesome staff and expedition guides! Loved every moment.”

Northern Passages & Glacier Bay

7 NIGHTS | JUNEAU TO SITKA, ALASKA (*or reverse)

IN ONE DEXTEROUS MOVE, THE BEAR HOLDS THE SALMON IN PLACE WITH ITS PAW...

Off shore—but only just—the skiff comes to a near standstill, bobbing slowly with the water's ebb and flow. Catching our movements, the bear looks up from its catch. Though my eyes never left the scruffy figure, the contents of the skiff were less enticing to the bear than its meal. After a moment, it turns its attention back to its fresh snack.

DAY 1 Welcome aboard! Meet the crew, settle in, and relax with your shipmates as you cruise the Inside Passage.

DAYS 2-7 Get your feet wet in Lynn Canal or Chatham Strait. Your captain determines the best starting point for backcountry adventure. Jump start your week with a paddle or skiff ride and you're likely to be welcomed by local harbor seals. Accompanied by a ranger in Glacier Bay—one of America's crown jewel national parks and a UNESCO World Heritage Site and Biosphere Reserve—the park is yours for the day. Awed by glaciers, learn the park's history, and take in a hike at Bartlett Cove. You'll be entertained at odoriferous South Marble Island, a Steller sea lion haulout and guillemot colony.

Set your course for the whale- and wildlife-rich waters of Icy Strait. Then join the captain on the bridge or your expedition team out on deck watching for whales, sea lions, mountain goats, sea otters, eagles, puffins, Black Oystercatchers and other creatures. Ride the skiffs—binoculars in hand—for a close inspection of the rugged shore, keeping watch for bears. Anchored in remote waters, lower the kayaks, or enjoy an intertidal walk with your guides on Chichagof and Baranof Islands. The small boat haven of Peril Strait connects to Sergius Narrows—a magnet for wildlife and great place to watch for bears, otters, whales, and eagles. After an adventurous last day, toast your voyage with a Farewell Dinner and a photo "journal" of your week by your expedition team.

DAY 8 Gather for breakfast as you cruise into Sitka, then disembark for your transfer to the airport or to your UnCruise land extension.

For PRE- & POST-CRUISE OPTIONS, see pages 50-53.

Alaska Fjords & Glaciers

7 NIGHTS | JUNEAU TO KETCHIKAN, ALASKA (*or reverse)

A GLITTERING SECRET, IT WOULD LIKELY BE MISSED ENTIRELY IF NOT FOR THE CRASHING OF WATER...

Tucked into a zig-zagging cleft in the rock, the waterfall drums the saltwater in a never-ending rhythm. Our kayaks get us close enough to feel the spray on our faces, and see ferns, mushrooms, and moss growing where water meets earth. Fjord walls reach to the sky, as big as the solitude all around.

DAY 1 After a hearty welcome from your crew, get acquainted with your shipmates and set sail for Endicott Arm.

DAYS 2-7 Snow-covered mountains, glowing blues, and the white thunder of calving ice take your breath away at the face of Dawes Glacier. Gliding through Endicott Arm, spot seals taking respite on the glacier's smaller "bergy bits" and, tides permitting, explore narrow Fords Terror. Poetic in every sense of the word, Thomas Bay offers up some of the finest paddling and hiking in Southeast Alaska. Take it easy on a lush forest trail or intertidal shore walk. Or get down and dirty in the muskeg and mud. In Wrangell, totems and a sacred tribal house tell legends and lore of the Tlingit and Haida.

Wildlife is everywhere. In Stephens Passage and along Behm Canal, it'll likely take shape in the form of bears, wolves, harbor seals, sea lions, orca, and humpbacks. Soak in Misty Fjords National Monument—affectionately called "The Yosemite of the North." Glacial valleys filled with sea water and sheer 3,000-foot cliffs are a haven for sea birds, bears, mountain goats, Sitka black-tailed deer, moose, and other wildlife. At the end of the last day, body well exercised and soul well filled, celebrate! Swap stories with your captain at the Farewell Dinner and share laughs with new friends over a slideshow recap.

DAY 8 Say it's not so—all good adventures come to an end. After breakfast, transfer to the Ketchikan airport or your UnCruise extended stay.

For PRE- & POST-CRUISE OPTIONS, see pages 50-53.

Alaska's Glacier Country

7 NIGHTS | ROUNDTrip JUNEAU, ALASKA

BEAMS OF SUN SHINE THROUGH THE EVERGREENS SPOTLIGHTING FERNS AND ORANGE FUNGI...

The loamy trail winds through the trees revealing forest treasures—stringy moss, Bigfoot-shaped shadows, and Alaska's illustrious banana slug. The path then opens into a wide meadow of wildflowers. John Muir's words, "the clearest way into the universe is through a forest wilderness" could have been written about this spot.

DAY 1 First settled in the gold rush days, Juneau welcomes with both small town charm and towering glaciers. Toast to the riches of Alaska as you sail into the wilderness.

DAYS 2-7 Energized and snug in your kayak, glide around in remote bays. At Glacier Bay National Park, a ranger comes aboard to share expert insight. Thrills and chills included as you cruise to the far end of John Hopkins Inlet or Tarr Inlet where glaciers calve into the water and show off their knife-edged peaks. Bears forage along shorelines. Anchor in a remote Chichagof Island inlet with backpacks loaded and adventure toys lowered (skiffs, paddle boards, kayaks), it's time to go play. Energy flows as you hike up through moss-covered trees and rain-fed waterfalls.

Despite its slim size, Kuiu Island is home to black bears who, like you, love the solitude and open skies in the heart of the Tongass National Forest.

Cruise past Five Finger Lighthouse, Alaska's oldest light station and The Brothers Islands, where sea lions nap on rocky knobs. Paddle into the deeps of Port Houghton or Windham Bay or head ashore for a hike. Skiffing up Endicott Arm, harbor seals laze around on icebergs. Slip into Fords Terror, the steep walls of this narrow opening streaked with waterfalls. Back in the Arm, gasp at the deep glacier-carved valleys. It's at the end where you meet the piece de resistance: Dawes Glacier. With a sharp crack, the white thunder of a calving slice makes a mega-splash.

DAY 8 Mmmm, fresh baked pastries over one last breakfast. Your crew and new friends wish heartfelt goodbyes. This morning, transfer to the Juneau airport or begin your UnCruise hotel stay or land tour.

For PRE- & POST-CRUISE OPTIONS, see pages 50-53.

Whales, Wildlife & Glaciers

7 NIGHTS | SITKA TO JUNEAU, ALASKA

IT'S SILENT EXCEPT FOR LAPPING WATER AND THE WIND-RUSH OF TREES, AN EAGLE'S CRY...

And bursts of laughter. We scramble hand-over-foot into the rain-soaked Tongass bush. Splattered with Alaskan mud, we can't help but giggle at the modern art taking shape on our boots and faces. Apparently, we're disturbing the peace—an eagle soaring above us gives a cry of protest.

DAY 1 A hearty greeting from the crew, then settle in with a glass of bubbly. Get to know your new shipmates as you sail past views of iconic Mt. Edgecumbe.

DAYS 2-7 The landscape takes your breath away. Baranof Island on one side, tiny, wild islands on the other. Drop anchor and set out by skiff and kayak. Meander along shore and the deep-green of Tongass forest. Your guides know where to make trails among giant trees. Kelp-threaded channels in Icy Strait are a magnet for sea lions, birds, and energized paddlers like you. Watch for signs of whales that swim in the strait, too. At Bartlett Cove, a ranger comes aboard to share the secrets of Glacier Bay. How many species of wildlife will you spot? Puffins, mountain goats, wolves, harbor seals, or more. You'll smell South Marble Island's sea lion haulout before you see it. And of course, glaciers. Scan a stories-tall face and listen for its white thunder. An impressive display.

Your captain picks the best backcountry spot to drop the toys and step ashore. Skiff near a hub for sea birds and shorebirds. There's boot-sucking, paddle-smacking adventure, too. In otter and bear country along Chichagof and Lynn Canal, give your arms or legs a workout—or both. You and your shipmates have secluded coves, intertidal zones, and tree-covered islets to yourselves. Scout for wildflowers and wildlife. Your last day is in the unofficial adventure capital of Alaska. Hit a Haines trailhead to the top of Chilkat Peninsula or the shores of the inlet, and take a float trip through a bald eagle preserve along the Chilkat River. Tonight, celebrate with a Farewell Dinner and photo journal.

DAY 8 Gather for breakfast with views of Juneau. Then it's time to disembark for your transfer to the airport or to your UnCruise land extension.

For PRE- & POST-CRUISE OPTIONS, see pages 50-53.

Alaska's Glaciers & Whales

7 NIGHTS | JUNEAU TO SITKA, ALASKA

LIKE A BOILING GEYSER, THE WATER ROILS AT THE SURFACE JUST BEYOND OUR SKIFF...

The water erupts with a massive burst. Bubble-net feeding humpbacks! My skin prickles with goosebumps—and I catch my breath. Compared to the size of these whales, we are tiny. You can see their pink tongues and feathery baleen. A dark eye of one looks right at me.

DAY 1 Hello, Juneau! Captain and crew get you settled on your ship. Unpack your adventurous spirit and set sail for Stephens Passage.

DAYS 2-7 You're cruising in waters frequented by humpbacks. Mountain goats, bears, and eagles are regulars here, too. Drifting icebergs. Cascading waterfalls. At the end of Tracy Arm—an ice-carved fjord—you'll get an up-close look at the face of a glacier. Feel the chill and layer up while you listen for the crack of white thunder. At Baird Glacier, don't forget your rubber boots. Hike the lunar landscape of a glacial outwash. And at LeConte—North America's southern-most tidewater glacier—skiff the iceberg gardens or, tides depending, walk among the bergs in the mudflats.

The Tongass delivers in Ideal Cove. Stroll a boardwalk trail through a muskeg or test your balance on a paddle board. Drop the kayaks for some paddling in the Keku Islands and Neva Strait. Through Chatham and Peril Straits, keep watch for critters. You're treated to traditional dancing and storytelling at the native Tlingit village of Kake. And on your last full day, head to the woods for a bushwhack or an intertidal walk on Baranof Island. Take in one last paddle before a Farewell Dinner and slideshow celebration. What a week!

Glacier Bay Small Ship Cruise

IN THE SOUTHERN-MOST REACHES OF GLACIER BAY'S OUTBACK, WE MIGHT HAVE FALLEN RIGHT OFF THE MAP...

We kayaked deeper into the bay. Thick-forested hills and rocky shoreline separated us from distant knife-edged peaks. This landscape looked almost unforgiving. A lackadaisical sea otter backstroked past, unfazed by us or the bay's immense wildness.

DAY 1 When in Juneau, up the gangplank you go to a warm welcome from your crew. Get settled in and get ready to sail. You're headed to Icy Strait.

DAYS 2-7 National Park. UNESCO World Heritage Site. Biosphere Reserve. Glacier Bay has many titles. Add adventure playground to the list. A whopping 3.3 million acres in size, and you are headed to places most visitors never see. Kayak around ice-carved bays and skiff deep in Dundas or Taylor Bay. Make for the shore for a heart-pumping bushwhack. Bears like it here and so will you. At Bartlett Cove, a ranger comes on board, then away you go to Tarr Inlet—home of Margerie and Grand Pacific Glaciers. Comb the water and the land for critters. Puffins, guillemots, sea lions, and mountain goats are regulars here.

Stretching 150 miles beside the Tongass National Forest, Chatham Strait is prime territory for exploration. Backpacks loaded and toys lowered (kayaks, skiffs, paddle boards), the options are plenty. Kuiu Island is home to one of the world's densest populations of black bears, and bald eagles too—scope the Saginaw Bay coastline for them by kayak or skiff. Find the smallest creatures in tide pools on the Keku Islands. Then the search is on for the biggest marine mammals—Frederick Sound is a hotspot for humpbacks. Last up, the cathedral-walled fjord of Fords Terror and skiffing towards Dawes Glacier in ice-choked Endicott Arm. Cap off the week with a Farewell Dinner and photo journal from your expedition team.

DAY 8 Fresh baked pastries over one last breakfast. Wish crew and shipmates a fond farewell. You'll miss them. Transfer to the Juneau airport or to your UnCruise extended stay.

BLUE-GRAY SLIVERS JUT UP AS FAR AS I CAN SEE, ICE POINTS SANDWICHED BY A GRANITE VALLEY...

The terminus of the glacier looks like dirty whipped meringue. Icy blue contrasting against steel-colored walls. Hiking the edge of the outwash, a wind chilled by glacial ice gusts past. All around tall mountains saw into the sky. So much to take in.

DAY 1 Juneau—Alaska’s capital city! Meet your shipmates, then make your way to your home away from home. It’s time for adventure.

DAYS 2-7 Grab a coffee, but take in the view for a real wake up. Kelp-lined channels. Hemlock and spruce forests. Sea lions, seals, and humpbacks cruise the dark waters of Icy Strait. As you go deeper into Glacier Bay, the waters get milkier. Most visitors only see one small corner of Glacier Bay National Park. Not you. You’ve got three days and the outback is vast! Remote bays (some with names, some without) deliver dense wilderness. Paddle, skiff, rubber boots—grab gear and go. A park ranger joins you in Bartlett Cove, then it’s a flutter of activity. Puffins, guillemots, and oystercatchers make a ruckus at a sea lion haulout. The crack of a calving glacier is even louder. Explore the stomping grounds of bears, wolves, and mountain goats. A skiff, kayak, or your own two feet take you to the glacier’s face or on a towering hilltop for a powerful view.

Big days call for a dose of recovery and guided morning stretches are just the ticket. Then you’re off! Hard charge, or keep it mellow—you’ll have time for both. Your captain picks hidden, off-the-map pockets in Lynn Canal or Chatham Strait. Haines’ nickname—“Adventure capital of Alaska”—sums it up. Float down the Chilkat River, go biking, or feel the burn on steep mountain trails. The views reward in spades. One last exploration of Tlingit and Klondike history before a Farewell Dinner on your final night. Your crew has a special treat—a slideshow of your adventures.

DAY 8 Linger over breakfast and conversation with new friends. Then safe travels to all—you’re transferred to the Juneau airport or your UnCruise hotel stay or land tour.

8 NIGHTS | ROUNDTrip PETERSBURG, ALASKA

MIST CLINGS TO THE TREES GIVING THE WINDING TRAIL AN EDGE OF SUSPENSE...

Our local guide speaks calmly about the resident population, obviously confident from having such familiarity with this place. At the viewing spot, we hold our breath. And then it appears. Big, brown, and wild. This is the land of bears.

DAY 1 Velkommen! Overnight at a Petersburg hotel. Watch the bustling fishing harbor and ogle over the Coast Mountains and Devil's Thumb looming across the bay.

DAYS 2-8 Choose flightseeing to a glacial icefield, a fishing charter, or an included Petersburg cultural tour. Weather has a say, but all options are good ones. Set sail into Frederick Sound. Whales breaching, black bears fishing, sea otters swimming, and sea lions grumbling.

A huge benefit of being on a small yacht is your access to wilderness areas that limit visitors to small groups of only 12. Ideal for UnCruisers returning or new to Alaska. Tebenkof Bay and South Baranof Wilderness Areas are prime spots for spotting wildlife. And your playground? Fingerling islets, muskeg and tide pools, rushing waterfalls, lupine-colored meadows, and thousands of acres of pristine forest. Your guides queue up the game plan. Hit the trail or find your paddling rhythm in a kayak or paddle board. Tribal members share the Tlingit story through dancing, legends, and totems at the village of Kake. Look for bears at Admiralty Island. Garbed in rubber boots, hop aboard a skiff for guided exploration around this protected area by water and ashore. The Stikine-LeConte Wilderness Area and Endicott Arm serve up adventure at the whim of tides and currents. Skiff through ice gardens and listen for a sharp crack of a calving glacier. Cap off your adventure at the Farewell Dinner.

DAY 9 After breakfast, disembark for your transfer to the airport, or your UnCruise hotel stay or land extension.

Twice as nice

Alaska is big. Really big. And the Alaska and Canada Inside Passages are long. There's a lot to take in while you're paddling, skiffing, hiking, and cruising. It's all impressive. And varied. That goes for both the landscape and the wildlife.

Why settle for one week, when you can take in more over two? You won't find any backtracking or duplicate days on a two-week Alaska adventure. What you will find is more face-time with glaciers, more backcountry hiking and kayaking, and more opportunities to see wildlife hotspots. Plus, the longer 14-night cruises are priced with built-in savings to give you a better value (compared to their 7-night counterparts).

Have a gander at your options over the next few pages. Go for the full monty sailing between Seattle and Juneau (Washington's Olympic National Park and San Juan Islands, through the Salish Sea, and in Southeast Alaska). Or, double your fun with more fjords, glaciers, parks, and wildlife—all in Southeast Alaska.

"I've thoroughly enjoyed these two weeks on board. And the best thing about the UnCruise experience is when we see something we just turn the boat and go check it out! Very cool!"

— Beth D; Riverside, CA (Alaska, July 2016)

Alaska's Inside Passage & San Juans Cruise

14 NIGHTS | SEATTLE, WA TO JUNEAU, AK (*or reverse)

WE HEAR BARKING FIRST, GROWING LOUDER UNTIL WE ALL BUT GIVE UP OUR CONVERSATION...

The culprits? Velvety-brown sea lions covering a rocky islet. Some stand tall swaying with their yells. Some nap. Others look up from reclining to see what the fuss is about. It's quite the setting—Glacier Bay is worth shouting about.

DAY 1 Ah, the Emerald City! With an enthusiastic greeting from captain and crew, settle in. Depart from Fishermen's Terminal and transit the locks.

DAYS 2-14 Your ship plies the quietest reaches along the Salish Sea and Alaska's and Canada's Inside Passages. Hike among old-growth trees, ferns, and wild rhododendron. Kayak and skiff in tucked-away coves. Washington's Olympic National Park and San Juan Islands set the bar high. There's even a hike atop Hurricane Ridge. Navigate the intricate straits and narrows and cruise for critters. Regular companions—aside from shipmates—are sea stars, curious harbor seals, orcas, and sea birds. Small communities, ghost towns, lighthouses, and the Great Bear Rainforest known for the white "spirit" bear dot shores and fjords along the way. Your crew shares natural and cultural history.

Glacial fjords, dense forest, rugged mountains—welcome to The Great Land. Stroll along totems and notorious Creek Street for a peek into Ketchikan's Tlingit culture and Klondike history. And in Petersburg, get a dose of Norwegian history. Your guides have the data on Tongass National Forest trails and waterways. Bears, mountain goats, and sharp-eyed eagles are afoot in Misty Fjords and Ernest Sound. Humpbacks feast in these waters full of krill. Keep your binoculars out in Frederick Sound, and Chatham and Icy Straits. It's no wonder Glacier Bay is a top bucket-list experience. A ranger joins you in the park to share natural history including the advance and retreat of Grand Pacific and Margerie Glaciers. One last hurrah, Haines. Hike, bike, or float, and turn the pages of this town's history.

DAY 15 Views of Juneau with your last breakfast. Then disembark for your transfer to the airport, or your UnCruise hotel stay or land extension.

For PRE- & POST-CRUISE OPTIONS, see pages 50-53.

THE GRAY MORaine OF THE GLACIER COULD BE A LUNAR LANDSCAPE BUT FOR THE SNOWCAPPED PEAKS...

Equipped with rubber boots and the camaraderie of adventure-hearted explorers, we are on our merry way. Hiking through the glacier's outwash. Scrambling around rock, silt, and splattering mud. Arctic terns cry their encouragement overhead.

DAY 1 There's nothing like a hearty greeting from your crew. Southeast Alaska welcomes you, too.

DAYS 2-14 Secluded coves. Tree-covered islets. Enigmatic woods. Drop anchor, pick your modus operandi, and get going. Kayak, skiff, or hike into the backcountry. Glacier-carved fjords, mossy trees, and twisting channels. It's the norm around Baranof and Chichagof Islands. Back-floating otters and sea lions might cross your path. Icy Strait is a regular hangout for whales. Porpoises and dolphins too. Cruise into Glacier Bay National Park. With a park ranger aboard, start your tally. Puffins, murrelets, mountain goats, harbor seals, and glaciers.

Soaring fjord cliffs. Deep u-shaped valleys. Floating ice. Grab a paddle and come on in—your captain makes the call, Lynn Canal or Chatham Strait. Kayak across Mendenhall Lake to hike to the glacier's ice. Or, take in the view and a hike from Mt. Roberts Tram. In Endicott Arm, your skiff driver navigates to Dawes Glacier passing bergs with lounging harbor seals. Tricky tides allowing, Fords Terror, too. The Tongass has muskegs and mud in store. Hike through a glacial moraine or take a long kayak to a remote salt chuck. Humpbacks, sea stars, black bears, and eagles are regulars in Stephens Passage, Thomas Bay, and Behm Canal. Your last full day, find a safe haven in Misty Fjords National Monument. On the go paddling, skiff to a waterfall, or sit, float and take it all in. Your captain joins in for a Farewell Dinner. Keep celebrating the journey with a slideshow recap.

DAY 15 Bid adieu to your new pals, then disembark after breakfast. You're transferred to the airport to begin your extended UnCruise hotel stay or land tour.

Alaska Glacier Cruise Ultimate Expedition

LIQUID SUNSHINE AS WE GLIDE ALONG A COASTLINE THAT SEEMS UNCHANGED FOR HUNDREDS OF YEARS...

Gold rushers destined for the Klondike saw this passage much as it is today. But now, Dall's porpoise and Steller sea lions are the ones traveling this route. Lynn Canal is North America's deepest fjord. Fixed gazes from eagles are a reminder this is wildness unmatched.

DAY 1 Hop aboard in Juneau. Your home on the water awaits, and glaciers and the Tongass are calling.

DAYS 2-14 Wake in a fjord flanked by sheer granite walls. In Tracy Arm, a harbor seal drifts by on an iceberg. Temps drop near icy faces and each glacier is unique—Baird, Twin Sawyers, and LeConte. Start with iceberg gardens or meadows of ferns and grasses, and end with a soak in the hot tub. Untouched Tongass unfolds and it's anything but straight. Coast lines zig and zag. Islands dot. And all around you, ice-carved landscapes beckon like a siren song. You're in deep. Grab your rubber boots for bushwhacking and splashing in the mud. Take a self-propelled paddle. Skiff into the way back. Or take it easy on a shoreline stroll. You're in wildlife territory—nesting arctic terns, mountain goats, bears, and eagles. Humpbacks play in Frederick Sound, Stephens Passage, and Icy Strait.

And another treat, there's traditional Tlingit storytelling, totems, and dancing in Kake village. Tour Sitka's Fortress of the Bear, home to orphaned bears. Bears also like Krestof and Nakwasina Sounds. Nose along remote shores, and tuck into the woods. Your guides have plenty to share about all-things Southeast. The granddaddy of parks, the specialness of Glacier Bay quickly sinks in. Mountain goats climb, sea lions grumble, and you sail deep into the park. A park ranger joins you aboard to see the glaciers—Margerie and Grand Pacific. Lynn Canal is full of opportunity. A long paddle for the view. Search tide pools for microscopic life. Hard charge, or smell the flowers on your final day in Haines—unofficial adventure capital of Alaska. Hiking and river floating are on deck. Celebrate your voyage with a fond Farewell Dinner and photo recap.

DAY 15 One more fresh pastry? Why not—it's your last onboard breakfast. Then transfer to the airport, or your UnCruise hotel stay or land extension.

For PRE- & POST-CRUISE OPTIONS, see pages 50-53.

Life on Board

Each vessel has a unique personality. But they all share a universal goal—to provide relaxation, comfort, and camaraderie. The ambience is welcoming and casual. The crew call you by name and quickly know your preferences, making you feel right at home. And by the end of the cruise, you and your fellow travelers will feel like one big family.

You'll be impressed with how enthusiastic and accommodating the crew is. There's good energy and excitement. The meals are plentiful and scrumptious. It's a classy, well-run operation. At least that's what past guests are saying. What they least expected though, was the bonding. Sharing adventures with people who became friends for life, and meeting so many returning passengers.

Everyone has their preferences, be it solitude or a few laughs with others. And on board, it's easy to have both. There are quiet nooks and crannies where you can dive into a good book or sketch the passing landscapes. Visit the captain on the bridge and learn about navigation. Or perhaps you'd rather mingle in the lounge or hang out on the bow eyeing the next WOW! moment.

Outer Decks & Inner Spaces

- An inviting dining room
- Main lounge or salon (with a variety of board games, books, and DVDs)
- Observation decks for wildlife viewing and relaxing under the stars
- Open bridge policy—visit with your captain and mates
- And possibly, a galley tour (it's amazing what they do in this space)

Wellness, Fitness & Relaxation

- Relax in the on-deck hot tub
- Nutritious meals with local ingredients
- Laps around the deck
- Fitness equipment or on-deck yoga stretches
- Active adventure gear for kayaking, paddle boarding, snorkeling*, and hiking

“The food and bar are the best I’ve ever experienced in a resort style vacation as well as the wait/steward folks... seriously. Finally, you all took away stress and gave me peace; peace of mind, soul, and that peace that comes with an exceptional harmonious group - fellow passengers and staff.”

— Martin H; Albuquerque, NM (Alaska, June 2018)

Wining & Dining

Humpbacks lunge into a bubble net feeding frenzy the moment plates are served. An otter swims up to the dining room windows with her baby on her belly, getting everyone out of their seats (we've all done it). It's no easy feat to prepare and serve dishes that consistently garner praise. There are special needs to be met, varying availability of ingredients, and there's always potential for those unexpected dining guests.

What you can expect:

- Early-riser breakfasts of fresh fruit and baked-on-board pastries
- Full breakfasts with hot and cold options and specialty items
- Lunches range from salads, sandwiches, and homemade soups to regionally-influenced dishes
- Dinners offer a choice of entrées including fresh, local seafood and meats
- Chef-selected wine pairings that complement your meal
- Made-from-scratch desserts like tiramisu and lavender panna cotta
- Varied hors d'oeuvres during cocktail hour
- Vegetarian dishes are available at all meals
- Special dietary needs can be met with advance notice

Unless there's a special barbecue or lunch on shore, most dinners are served over several courses. Attention is always paid to your personal preferences. The dining experience is casual. And seating is open so you can join new friends and choose a different table at every meal.

Celebrating a birthday, anniversary, or other occasion? Let us know when you book your cabin. Our expert pastry chef will whip up a surprise treat to make it memorable.

What's on the menu

Early morning sees a passing of the torch. The pastry chef has baked through the wee hours of the morning. And after dawn, the head chef and sous chefs prepare the hot-from-the-stove portions of the meal. Masters of improvisation, menus may alter. Creativity in the galley never fails.

Your galley crew is attentive to ingredients. They also pay close attention to how food options meld with the activities and conditions of the day. Savory salmon cakes are satisfying starters after an invigorating hike. Belly-warming soups are perfect after a chilly glacier adventure. At mealtimes, there are vegetarian, land, and sea options to choose from. And if you can't decide, try a sampling—just ask for half-and-half!

— Sample Breakfast Menu —

Avocado toast topped with pesto, grilled tomato, poached eggs & red pepper sabayon; Prosciutto, asparagus & goat cheese omelet; Banana pecan pancakes; Sweet potato hash, sausage, bacon, ham;
Fresh baked pastries

— Sample Dinner Menu —

Field greens with fresh raspberries, caramelized chevre & champagne roasted shallot vinaigrette

Oven-fresh rosemary focaccia finished with apricot & sweet onion glaze

Baked Alaskan halibut with lemon-/thyme-infused compound butter

— or —

Tarragon roasted garlic pork medallions with braised Gala apples & cream sherry reduction

— or —

Towering summer squash Napoleon layered with crumbled boursin
& pomegranate balsamico

Spiced poached pear with buttery puff pastry & salted caramel

The Galley

Spatulas, knives, and ladles at the ready. Head chefs handcraft every meal. And the result? Innovative, nutritious, and tasty dining experiences that highlight flavors of the region. In Alaska, savor buttery-rich Dungeness crab caught live, in-season, by local fishermen. And, huckleberries add a sweet tartness to mixed greens and desserts. Hundreds of collective hours spent sautéing, chopping, braising, and caramelizing have taught each team how to craft brilliant meals. And that experience—plus bacon in a salad, atop a dessert, or to garnish a cocktail—is likely to increase chances of success. While Mother Nature is assured her place at center stage, the galley's fine-tuned creations earn deserved time in the spotlight and on your fork. It's exciting in the galley!

“How staff in kitchen managed in such a small space is beyond me! Thanks for making the vegetarian options real food. Delicious.”

— Ruthann A; Edwardsburg, MI (Alaska, May 2018)

Wetting Your Whistle

A photograph of a bartender in a maroon vest and white shirt pouring red wine from a bottle into a glass held by a guest. The scene is set in a dimly lit bar or restaurant with warm lighting and other glasses visible on the table.

The vibe depends on the vessel. Your setting might be reminiscent of a neighborhood pub or a rustic lodge. An intimate wine bar or an upscale lounge. Specialty coffee and teas are always available. Wines tend to come from Washington and Oregon, but impressive international wines are also available. Most of our boats feature sustainable cask wines on a rotating tap. And there's a "Captain's List" if you're interested in purchasing some exceptional boutique wines on board.

Behind the bar, there are no wells or mass-produced options. What you'll find are small batch, craft spirits. Along with barrel-aged cocktails (often mixed with seasonal, local ingredients), house-made mixers and cordials, even some house-infused spirits (like a cucumber vodka or gin). The UnCruise Bloody Mary mix is popular, too (guests line up for the stuff). Call us cocky, but we're confident that we can hang our hat on having the best craft bars afloat!

And while the occasional tastings do pop up, the nature of most bartenders is that of a tinkerer. Inspiration can come from the unique experiences of the day, the wilderness explored, or stories of hearty explorers—John Muir, Jack London, and you. So enjoy! Fine wines, local spirits, and microbrews served aboard are included in your fare.

"Bar service—a delightful aspect of our cruise. Interesting cocktails, excellent wine choices, and a very engaging bartender."

— Robert & Barbara S; Winnetka, IL (Alaska, June 2017)

The Fleet

Much like any family, the vessels in the fleet are eclectic. And as the fleet has grown, with each boat brought into the fold, it's been fun to see their individual personalities come to life. They've got character. Each different from their siblings. Yet all are comfortable and inviting. Your home away from home.

All hands on deck

These small ships are designed for action and to bring the outside in. Their shallow drafts mean exploration and access to places bigger ships can't go. They are compact and everywhere on board—cabins, public spaces, decks—is accessible within minutes. All cabins are outside (either the window faces the water or one step through the door and you are out in the fresh air).

From a kayak launch platform or swim step, to a lodge-like feel with creature comforts (no internet, but you'll survive), each one is there to deliver.

Choose your itinerary, and where there's a choice, your boat preference. Or, follow your favorite boat wherever it goes.

Wilderness Adventurer

60 Guests / 26 Crew / 30 Cabins / Length 160'

Wave Strong

Like your favorite, hippie-cool aunt, she's sage, soulful, and game for every adventure—and likely the one leading the charge. The unassuming Wilderness Adventurer has style and all the amenities needed to get the job done. It's just as comfortable moseying into the lounge for a pint as it is to leap from the fantail for a polar plunge or sketch a landscape from the sundeck.

Yep. She lives up to her name. There's something about this boat in particular that breeds a high level of activity from guests and crew. The mantra on board could be: work hard, play hard, relax, repeat. The term "WAV STRONG" (WAV, sounds like "wave," is an acronym for Wilderness Adventurer) was adopted years back and all aboard take it to heart. The ship's easy-going, fun-making energy inspires fierce loyalty by her crew and guests alike. So beloved, it's common for crew who transfer to other boats to take "wav-isms" with them.

Wilderness Discoverer

76 Guests / 28 Crew / 38 Cabins / Length 176'

Knows No Limits

Warm and inviting, efficient, and oh so cared for by her crew. The Wilderness Discoverer's agenda is to deliver big adventure. And she does it in top-of-the-class style. Sleek with a northwest feel, the ship was retrofitted specifically for wilderness exploration. Wild, remote, and at the edges of the map, she carries a bit of Alaska wherever she sails—the beautiful bar top and tap tower are made from a yellow cedar log found in Peril Strait.

Her crew takes a lot of pride in spiffing her up and many say she's the best-looking vessel in the fleet. But looks aside, she doesn't hold back when it comes to exploration. Her shoal draft allows access to waters that are off-limits to bigger boats, where she can slip right in. An instigator of action, she was the first "Wilderness" boat in the family and set us on a path toward greater adventures—you will be too.

Wilderness Explorer

74 Guests / 28 Crew / 37 Cabins / Length 186'

Boat with Feet

Daring and ambitious, and a wee bit salty. The Wilderness Explorer was destined for Alaska's deep waters from the first moment her boat builders in Boothbay Harbor, Maine slid her into the drink. A strong "sea boat" with feet, she is not bashful or apologetic in her, or her crew's, unflinching drive to seek out secret niches—with attitude. You know the kind, that "we are better than the rest" attitude. She's special like that.

Fully embracing change and keeping it fresh, the crew is known to be creative and willing to try the untried, whether it's a new anchorage with access to an unexplored trail or a new recipe with locally-foraged ingredients. Bold with a capital Brrr, she's over-wintered in Southeast Alaska, for not one, but two wicked cold seasons. Get to know her, and she'll warm your heart.

Safari Endeavour

88 Guests / 35-37 Crew / 44 Cabins / Length 232'

Big-Hearted

Polished, unwavering, and upscale, the Safari Endeavour may be the workhorse of the fleet but it's her zest-for-life persona that's remembered most. She looks sharp—a nod to the crew who work hard to keep her that way. Wood fixtures and accents shine and artwork highlights the warm and cool waters where she sails. No other UnCruise ship covers more territory, and like her namesake, Captain Cook's Endeavour, both the ship and crew are true explorers.

Always reliable, the captain and crew take great pride in their ship and the teamwork that keeps her running smoothly. And it shows. You can be sure if there is a score to be settled, the captain will argue she's the "greatest" ship in the fleet. Her roomy lounge, dining room, and sun deck are undisputed, but the Safari Endeavour claims to have the biggest heart, too.

S.S. Legacy

90 Guests / 34-35 Crew / 45 Cabins / Length 192'

First Loves Never Fade

A perfect mash-up of old and new—replica 1898 coastal gold rush steamer, Victorian-style décor, and modern machinery. The elegant and one-of-a-kind S.S. Legacy is a classic and the fastest in the fleet. Capable of 15 knots, she can sail to the farthest reaches gathering more stories of adventure along the way. It's no wonder that for many of the crew (and office folk), she's a first love that never fades.

And wherever she sails, she announces her arrival with an antique whistle—a relic from UnCruise CEO Dan Blanchard's childhood tugboat (well, his father's tug). The Pesky Barnacle is a welcoming hub to every adventure-hearted soul who sidles up with a whisky or gears up for adventure. Equipped with kayaks, paddle boards, skiffs, and the Sea Dragon (a portable launch platform), she is at the ready for exploration. Like the crew and guests having the time of their lives, she hums with each new opportunity.

Safari Quest

22 Guests / 10 Crew / 11 Cabins / Length 120'

Small but Mighty

Size makes this baby a swift permit buster. With just 22 guests, she can enter areas restricted to traditional small ships. Agile, spry, and with clean design lines, the Safari Quest can cut into the tiniest nooks that even our other small ships can't reach. This includes coveted wilderness areas with highly limited access of no more than two groups of twelve guests per day. For those most special adventures, she is the ticket in.

While small is her secret for access, on the inside this yacht is anything but. Spacious and comfy cabins. A cozy and welcoming lounge and dining room. And plenty of onboard niches for nestling and relaxing. On a boat this size, camaraderie is near-instant—feel the love. A feeling akin to family. The first ship in our early days as American Safari Cruises, the Quest is a cherished part of the UnCruise family.

Safari Explorer

36 Guests / 16 Crew / 18 Cabins / Length 145'

Tough Nugget

This high-end SUV of a ship is nimble, strong, and loving. The Safari Explorer has what mariners call “feet” that take her into wild areas most other ships aren’t certified to visit. Her performance-built rugged construction means access to faraway regions. But it’s what’s on the inside that makes this yacht the prize of the fleet. And with only 36 guests on board, the feel is decidedly exclusive.

Lovingly called “the Bulldog,” she’s poised, her interior is a pearl, and the general mood is down-to-earth. For about half the year, she bops around the islands of Hawaii soaking up the laid-back aloha spirit. The other half she spends in Alaska sowing her wild oats. A protective spirit infused in every part of the ship, and within the crew. She’s made for adventures after all and with them comes inevitable fun and folly.

Unparalleled Value

From your first inquiry until even after your trip and, of course, throughout your UnCruise, you receive welcoming, friendly, personalized service—and a host of benefits you won't find on most other ships.

Choose to UnCruise<sup>SM</sup>

Flexibility to do as much or as little as you like, and in comfort. You choose—kick back or get up and go. We make it happen.

Backstage pass. Small-group travel puts you in the action (not watching from afar). You won't believe how close.

Home. Boats are well-appointed and very comfortable. You quickly discover that your home-away-from-home is secondary to what's going on around it.

Memories to last a lifetime. Be prepared for AHA! and “I-can't-believe-I-just-did-that” moments. You'll leave with lots of them.

Connection. On a journey this intimate, you can't help but feel connected—to the earth, to yourself, and to friends old and new.

Breezy. From transfers and baggage handling, to cruise cabins and pre- and post-cruise extensions, you're taken care of.

Zero hidden costs. What most defines your trip is included in the fare—excursions, hand-crafted cuisine, and a wide array of beverage options... including alcohol.

Welcome

You're part of the family. Through our UnCruiser loyalty program, you receive exclusive savings on future cruises, referral incentives (for you AND your friends), and more.

Next Adventure Savings—before you disembark, choose to UnCruise again and lock in exclusive savings. You won't need to choose a destination, date, or vessel yet, just place a deposit on a future booking before you bid farewell to your crew. It's as easy as that. Even when you opt to charter a vessel and have your run of the ship.

Loyalty Savings—another cool perk to take advantage of. You earn more after every UnCruise too. And once you've sailed three times, you've gone Beyond the Buoy (a more personalized level of benefit options added to the mix).

Refer-A-Friend Savings—don't forget to spread the word. As our ambassador, both you and your friends save—because that's what friends are for.

Be in the know—with quarterly e-newsletters and unforgettable memories. We keep you up to date on goings-on around the office and the ships.

“The warm smiles, the amazing positive attitudes, the delicious food, the never-ending bar, and of course Alaska! I can't toot your horn enough - every single detail is perfect!”

— Teresa W; Santa Rosa, CA (Alaska, May 2017)

Family Discoveries Program

Children ages 8-13 years (at time of travel) save $500 per child. Ages 8 years and older are welcomed aboard most vessels and exceptions may be made for children 7 and under with special approval. The Safari Quest welcomes guests ages 13 years and older. Age guidelines are waived on all private charters. It is the responsibility of parents or guardians to supervise their children at all times.

Smoking

Smoking is allowed only in designated areas on outside aft decks. Smoking is not allowed inside the vessels at any time.

Health and Disability Requirements

Guests must notify us in writing at the time of booking of any physical or mental illness, disability or other conditions for which special accommodations or the use of a wheelchair is necessary or contemplated. We must also be notified of any medical treatment that may render the guest unfit for travel or constitute a risk or danger to the guest or anyone else on board. Guests needing any form of assistance and those who are physically disabled must be accompanied by someone who takes full responsibility for any needed assistance during the cruise and in the event of an emergency. We reserve the right to refuse passage to anyone who, in our sole opinion, may affect the health, safety or enjoyment of other guests.

Guests requiring a wheelchair must provide their own collapsible wheelchair. Some ports of call, shore excursions, docks, gangways, and other ship requirements may preclude a wheelchair guest from leaving the vessel; this decision will be made by the captain and is binding. Additionally, there may be certain physical conditions, including raised doorway thresholds from 2 to 16 inches, stairways, and narrow passageways within the vessel that may limit or preclude the accessibility of wheelchair guests to some areas.

Due to the limitations of vessel facilities, bookings cannot be accepted for women who will be 30 weeks or more pregnant at the conclusion of travel. Women in their third trimester (greater than 24 weeks, but less than 30 weeks) must submit a letter from their physician granting permission to travel by boat (and for air travel, if applicable).

Sustainable Adventures

Destinations remote and scenic call out to be explored. Water and mountains. Beaches and jungles. Fjords rimmed by granite cliffs. Vibrant reefs with tropical fish. We travel and we connect—with the people we meet, the places we visit, the natural world. Personal experiences weave emotional connections into our lives. We watch our step, change course, and take care to leave no trace.

We're responsible for the well-being of the people and the places we visit because we:

- Purchase local food and supplies
- Partner with locals for tours and services
- Reduce waste, buy bulk, and recycle
- Don't use bottled water—reusable water bottles provided on board
- Conserve fuel and practice emission reduction
- Monitor water quality and use desalinating watermakers
- Respect wildlife and keep proper distance
- Serve only sustainable seafood in partnership with Monterey Bay Aquarium's Seafood Watch program

We care now for the future.
